Held in association with the Pro-Bono Club under the Nyaya Bandhu Programme of the Disha 2.0 Scheme, Ministry of Law and Justice, Government of India, the competition aimed to provide students with practical exposure to courtroom proceedings, enhance their advocacy and legal research skills, and foster analytical reasoning and professional confidence.

Vigilance Awareness Week 2026: "Probity for Prosperity"

Brainware University, in collaboration with Department of Law, NSS and My Bharat, organised Vigilance Awareness Week 2026 from 26th to 31st October 2026 under the theme "Probity for Prosperity" (सत्यनिष्ठासेसमृद्धि). The week-long observance featured an opening ceremony with an integrity pledge, a quiz competition, a seminar on "Dharma as the Shield of Prosperity: Upholding Probity for the Welfare of All," a poster drawing and explanation activity, a debate and extempore competition, and a closing ceremony marked by a walkathon. The initiative aimed to promote ethical values, integrity, transparency and accountability among students and faculty members, while highlighting the importance of probity in building a just and prosperous society.

Freshers' Welcome 2026: The Department of Law, Brainware University

The Department of Law, Brainware University, warmly welcomed its new students from the BBA LL.B., BA LL.B., LL.B., and LL.M. programmes as part of the Freshers' Welcome 2026 celebration, marking the beginning of an exciting journey into the world of legal education. The occasion provided an opportunity for the newcomers to connect with their seniors and faculty members, build meaningful relationships, and become part of a vibrant academic community committed to justice, equality, and the rule of law. The celebration reflected the spirit of unity, mutual respect, and intellectual curiosity that forms the foundation of legal learning. As the new students embark on their academic journey, the Department of Law looks forward to nurturing their legal knowledge, critical thinking, professional ethics, and advocacy skills, inspiring them to become responsible legal professionals and future contributors to the justice system.
