

English Language Teaching

English Language Teaching (ELT) focuses on the methodologies and practices involved in teaching English to non-native speakers, aiming to develop learners' proficiency in speaking, listening, reading, and writing for effective communication in a global context.

<https://www.britannica.com/topic/English-language>

Faculties:

Ms. Oindrila Roy, Assistant Professor, Department of English and Literary Studies, Brainware University